FIRST QUARTER 2006
VOLUME 26 NUMBER 1

THE OFFICIAL PUBLICATION OF THE SOUVENIR CARD COLLECTORS SOCIETY

AS I SEE IT

William Kriebel (27)

ON THE COVER: Britannia, an image (enlarged 170%) from a beautiful new book by Gene Hessler, The International Engraver's Line: Paper Money and Postage Stamp Engravers and their work from the 1700s to the Euro. The image was engraved by Nigel Alan Dow (b. 1929) in 1955 and used on a £5 bank note of Great Britain. I include my review of this new book in this issue.

The SCCS Annual Meeting will be held at Washington 2006 and is scheduled for Monday, 29 May, at 12:00 noon. The room is 143 A and, I understand will be available for at least 90 minutes with the next event scheduled for 2:00 p.m. The SCCS will have a booth/table which is No. 2747. I have not heard from any members as to whether or not they plan to attend. Be there!

It is somewhat frustrating to note that our records list membership numbers above 2000, but there are only 193 names on the "active" list. As Art Benjamin notes (page 2), we are still waiting for some 17 members to renew their dues for 2006, our 26th year. As such, they will NOT be receiving this issue or the Annual Card, which is included in the dues. All of those who had not renewed by the end of February were sent a "reminder" post card. I thank those of you who heeded the message. We can't produce a Journal and an Annual Souvenir Card without your support.

You probably have already noticed that this issue has been decreased in size in an effort to control costs including this year's increase in postal rates, and an unforeseen increase in printing. The issues are sent First Class Mail. We have two members outside the U.S. and international mail was increased disproportionately higher than rates in this country!

This issue is also coming out later than I would like partially due to factors beyond my control, not the least of which was my desire to show the two latest BEP cards which, unfortunately, will "take two to three weeks for delivery."

What we can continue to provide will be discussed in D.C.! Be there and express your opinion(s) or contact either Art (see page 2) or myself:

kriebewv@drexel.edu

Unless you frequent their web site on a regular basis you probably missed the notice about the previously unannounced BEP card celebrating the Cherry Blossom. This along with their "program" for 2006 of three cards was apparently inexplicably delayed from public notice until virtually the last minute. The "subscription" notice for the three cards arrived less than a month before the "guarantee" deadline and there was NO mail notice about the single card. I guess there are too many personnel changes in the Bureau to hope that someone cares about collectors who, I might add are subject to a rather stiff increase in the cost of their products. I have already noted that the term "souvenir card" has been abandoned in favor of more sophisticated names like "Treasures" which I guess justifies—in their minds—the prices!

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Arthur Benjamin (1032)

We set the clock forward and my message was due. I find I do not have the time to prepare this message on a timely basis. This is very frustrating to me and our editor.

Once again the Bureau has surprised us by issuing an unannounced card. I saw it on their website while trying to get details about the cards to be issued in Atlanta this weekend [7 April]. There text was:

"On March 27 - April 7, 2006, in commemoration of the 2006 National Cherry Blossom Festival, the Bureau of Engraving and Printing (BEP), will sell a specially created intaglio print card depicting the BEP tree-lined facade on the Tidal Basin. Visitors can view the card being printed on a 19th Century Spider Press at the BEP Visitors Center during designated demonstration times. Also on display in the Visitor Center is an exhibit entitled, The Loveliest of Trees, featuring various images of Washington's famed cherry trees, including photographs, artwork, and engravings used for United States postage stamps and BEP-printed souvenir cards."

The vignette is modified from the one they used in 1987 for the Bureau's 125th anniversary and was engraved by Tom Hipschen. That plate was destroyed and they created a new variety for this card. That original card [B101] was [then] issued at 6 different shows, one with an embossed BEP seal and the others with a gold seal. The various seals were different and included show dates [B101A-A, see SCJ 24:3, p. 9].

We learned from the Bureau that the spider press demonstration proof would not be sold to the public. From the BEP picture I can tell that there is a line of Text that distinguishes this card from the previous versions. The cost is $9.95 each.

The Bureau did takes some of the cards to the Atlanta ANA show and some were postal cancelled there by our members.

If you are reading this it means you paid your dues or are a Life member and continue with us in our 26th year. Our first issue was in the spring of 1981. This promises to be an exciting year from a collectible standpoint and a challenging year for the Society from a financial standpoint. The number of paid members as of this moment is 122 and we are still waiting for final response from an additional 17.

We will not be able to issue four copies of the Journal in its current format with the money we have in the treasury. Therefore I am appealing for help to our two Chapter clubs in New York and Washington. I know that both groups have managed to earn substantial money through their sale of souvenirs cards. The National Society rarely used souvenir card as a fund raiser. I always deferred this to the local Chapters as they had the dedicated people willing to supply the priceless labor to maintain their independent programs. Bill Kriebel has taken substantial steps to reduce the cost of the Journal. Much of these savings were accomplished by changing printers and Bill mailing the Journals himself. We need to take additional steps to reduce cost including the option of a smaller Journal and a switch to a paper cover. Our changes will reflect the response to my request for financial support.

The splitting of the costs between the two Chapters enabled our participation as a club at Washington 2006. We need them to step forward again and subsidize the Journal for this year. This will allow us the time to make the necessary decisions and changes on an orderly basis as respects the future of the Society.

I currently am the Treasurer and President. I cannot continue in this dual capacity and I will definitely give up the President's role. This and the future of the Society will be the focus of our Annual Meeting at Washington. The meeting will be at 12 Noon on Memorial Day [29 May]. I hope you will attend, and participate. I look forward to a lively discussion and perhaps we will be able to transfer the office[s] during the meeting.

Please call me at 718-627-1879, or e-mail:

asbenjamin@msn.com

if you wish to discuss further or have issues you would like presented during our meeting.

I look forward to your responses.

Nr 2 og 3. Sverre Morken har gravert mer enn 150 norske frimerker. I tillegg har han laget frimerker for Færøyene og FN. Blant hans prisbelønte frimerker er utgivelsen "Nobels fredspris 100 år" fra 2001.

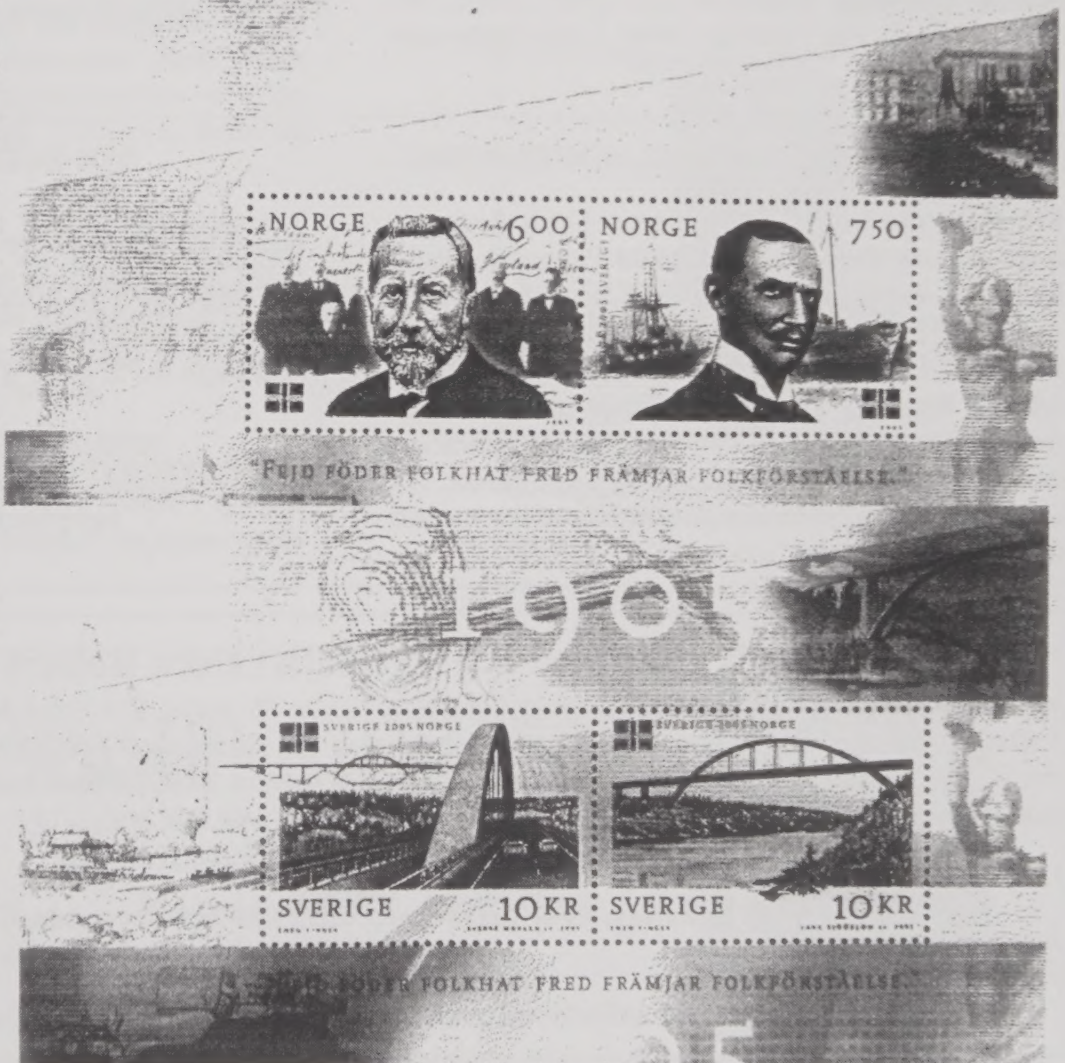

Nr 1 och 4. Lars Sjöblom är svenska Postens anställda gravör. Han graverade sitt första frimärke, Anders Celsius, 1982. Sedan dess har han graverat över 200 frimärken. Bland hans senaste frimärken kan samutgåvan med Irland Nobelpris i litteratur från år 2004 nämnas.

At the Mega Event in New York City, I purchased this interesting souvenir of Scandinavian engraving. It is a folder measuring 8.25" x 6" which opens to three parts (partially shown here at 85%), i.e., 18" high. The top (right) contains a souvenir sheet with two Norwegian stamps; the bottom (below, right) a souvenir sheet with two Swedish stamps; and the middle (above) proofs of the stamps (all in plastic mounts) and portraits of the two engravers. Text in Swedish and Norwegian. The dates are 1814-1905 and 2005, I am not sure what they represent other than the ties/bridge between the two countries.

These are prime examples of the engraving art found abroad as discussed in a new book (see review on page 17).

I am continuing this series with the ASDA Chapter cards of which I am aware, thanks again to Dick Moore and Larry Dodson for photocopies. I do not know what prompted these groups to issue these cards and/or why they apparently stopped. Money? Interest? Apathy?

Anyway, again most of the copies had no dark backgrounds so I have assumed that they are all the same size as the ones that did. I was also somewhat chagrined that they did not fit neatly into my "system," i.e., pages of 12 illustrations—there are 37 cards—so the last one appears below.

Some members have asked for illustrations of our own Society cards and so, as far as possible, I will show the cards issued by our National Society and those of Washington Chapter One. The cards of Metro Chapter Four have been reproduced in their own "catalog"—for the most part full size—so I do not see a need to reproduce them again in this series. (To my knowledge, there has never been a Chapter Two or Three.)

The national SCCS cards, with the exception of the first card, printed by the American Bank Note Company, have been issued in conjunction with the Society's Annual Meeting and, I believe, were all printed by Mike Bean.

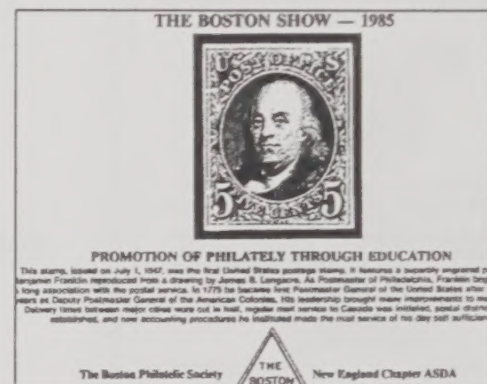

Metro Chapter One's cards, were usually also issued for their annual meetings but they have also done some "special" cards as well as some cards in multiples in different colors. Their first card is an offset reproduction with a Chapter "cancel."

I am indebted to John Shue for providing photocopies of some of the recent cards which I do not have and their are still some "blanks" for some cards issued for the Chapter "officers" only (in limited editions, usually in different colors than the "public" cards.

There is also some confusion of locations. BALPEX, the Baltimore Philatelic Exhibition, has been held in Baltimore, but also in Hunt Valley, MD, even though the cancels may read "Baltimore Station." NAPEX, the National Philatelic Exhibition, that one might expect to find in Washington, DC, has been held across the Potomac in Virginia—Arlington, Mc Lean, and Tysons Corner which is basically a shopping complex with hotels. I presume the costs are lower in those venues. Often the cancels will simply read "Washington."

I have tried to include the annual numbers for the events honored, but I have not been able to ascertain them for BALPEX. I have also tried to list the event for/at which the card was issued, but I have no idea what "APIC" stands for. The "SWBCC" sometimes appears as "SWBCS" with the last "S" for "Show" instead of the "C" for "Club."

ECHO 1 was the first communications satellite placed in orbit by NASA on August 12, 1960. This huge 100-lb. plastic ballroom was covered with a thin coating of metal which reflected radio waves transmitted from the earth to other ground relay stations. This "passive" type of reflective satellite was the forerunner of today's communications satellite which receives signals, amplifies and retransmits them with power generated from solar energy. Echo 1 burned up as it reentered the earth's atmosphere in 1968.

CONCORD, MASSACHUSETTS - April 19, 1775. A detachment of 700 British regular troops was sent from Boston to destroy military stores at Concord. After the initial confrontation with minute men at Lexington, the soldiers encountered resistance on the North Bridge at Concord. After a few military rounds had been fired and destroyed by the British, and the red coats began to tear up the Concord Bridge to prevent an American pursuit, Major John Buttrick of the minuteman forces roused his men to the attack and drove the British in a hasty retreat towards Boston.

A NEW ENGRAVING BOOK IN REVIEW

William Kriebel (27)

On various occasions in these pages, I have referred to a book, The Engraver's Line: An Encyclopedia of Paper Money & Postage Stamp Art, by Gene Hessler (BNR Press, 1993), which I have found very useful and informative. That's why I became excited when his latest contribution was noted in Bank Note Reporter. The first book appeared to be a hard act to follow, but the author is more than up to the task. Both books are hardbound, but the latest one loses its dust jacket and frowning (?) lion. It is more than compensated for by the many (700±) illustrations, most in color!

The new book is The International Engraver's Line: Paper Money and Postage Stamp Engraver's and Their Work from the 1700s to the Euro (Gene Hessler, 2005). Even if you are not interested in biographical data, if you are interested in engravings, this should be on your wish list!

As the BEP no longer prints stamps, let alone engraved ones, I rejoice that the art still survives abroad—even if it has been modified by technology as Gene explains in his informative six-page introduction. Many of the images are familiar, especially if you have looked at envelopes from abroad or have traveled and looked at the beautifully produced currency.

This book not only includes biographical data on the firms and their artisans (many are pictured as portraits or at work), but examples of their work both trial pieces and completed items: portraits, real people, allegories, animals, buildings, and on and on.

Gene includes an extensive index by country for: Bank Notes; Advertising Notes, Essais [sic] & Miscellaneous Illustrations; Postage Stamps; and General subjects. The work itself is alphabetical by firm/artist.

A nice feature is a ribbon marker to remind you of where you stopped perusing the book, if you can.

My one fault, is one of attribution. As an architect (retired), I was aware that the Finnish architect Eliel Saarinen (1873-1950) had indeed designed some postage stamps (Scott illustrations A19 & 20) and bank notes (1907-1922) for Finland, which are beautifully illustrated in Eliel Saarinen: Projects 1896-1923 (MIT Press, 1990). He came to the U.S. in 1927 and was commissioned to design the Cranbrook Academy in Bloomfield Hills, Michigan. It is the "other examples of his work" that is a bit misleading. Eliel worked with his son, Eero, (1910-1961) on the G.M. complex (1949) and some other projects, but the others listed were completed long (mid to late 1950s) after his death. The error is understandable with a father/son team with names starting with "E."

The book is 382 pages, 7" x 10.25", in an edition of 750 copies, 100 of which are "premium" and include a De La Rue advertising note and ten bank notes and engravings signed by the artist. The regular edition is $69, the premium is $135. Postage to be added is $5. They may be ordered (payment in U.S. funds by check or money order) from the author: Gene Hessler, P.O. Box 31144, Cincinnati, OH 45231. Inquiries or international order information may be made engraversline@aol.com

Gene's earlier work, The Engraver's Line, is also still available at $85 or, for both volumes, $139 postpaid.

[Additional illustrations: opposite page, next page, and inside back cover. The illustrations in the book are of much better quality than I can produce, especially those in color.]
